Recognising a Conflict of Interest

Checklist for Employees

Do you think you have an actual, perceived or potential conflict of Interest?

The following questions may help when assessing an issue or considering the situation in which you are involved.

- Would I, or anyone associated with me, benefit from, or be detrimentally affected by my proposed decisions or action?
- Could there be benefits for me in the future that could cast doubt on my objectivity?
- Do I have a current or previous personal, professional or financial relationship or association of any significance with an interested party?
- Would my reputation or that of a relative, friend or associate stand to be enhanced or damaged because of the proposed decision or action?
- Do I or a relative, friend or associate stand to gain or lose financially in some covert or unexpected way?
- Do I hold any personal or professional views or biases that may lead others to reasonably conclude that I am not an appropriate person to deal with the matter?
- Have I contributed in a private capacity in any way to the matter my organisation is dealing with?
- Have I made any promises or commitments in relation to the matter?
- Have I received a substantial gift, benefit or hospitality from someone who stands to gain or lose from my proposed decision or action?
- Am I a member of an association, club or professional organisation or do I have particular ties and affiliations with organisations or individuals who stand to gain or lose by my proposed decision or action?
- Could this situation have an influence on any future employment opportunities outside my current official duties?

- Could there be any other benefits or factors that could cast doubt on my objectivity?

If you have ticked yes to any of the above questions you should complete and return Declaration of Interest Form or, alternatively, seek further advice from the Head of Legal Administration
