Rules and Regulations for the Control of the Public Cemeteries within the Newry, Mourne and Down District Area

1. Introduction

These rules and regulations are made by Newry, Mourne and Down District Council for the general management, regulation and control of the Public Cemeteries within the district. As the burial authority in control of Cemeteries, we are bound by the conditions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878 Part III; Burial Grounds Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992; Local Authorities Cemeteries Order 1977 and we have a legal duty under the Health and Safety at Work Order (NI) 1978; and Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations (NI) 2000 to ensure that our burial grounds are safe places to work and visit.

This booklet will provide you with guidance on arranging a burial within Council cemeteries. It provides information on restrictions and conditions that apply when purchasing exclusive rights of burial and will help make you aware of your rights and responsibilities in relation to our cemeteries. This guidance outlines how we carry out our legal obligations and ensures we provide you with a consistent, high level of service.

No ground shall be opened, or burial permitted until the charges and fees payable in respect thereof, and all sums due to the Council by the proprietor shall have been paid.

5. Ownership of Graves

5.1. Graves in Proprietary Ground

To buy a grave, you buy what is known as “Exclusive Right of Burial” for a grave space.

You can only buy a grave at the time of bereavement and you cannot buy graves in advance. When you purchase the exclusive right of a burial you only purchase the right to bury. Ownership of an Exclusive Right of Burial for a grave does not give any ownership whatsoever in respect of actual land.

A person who wishes to purchase the exclusive right of burial in a grave shall sign an application binding themselves, including their successors assigning to conform to all rules and regulations in force or thereafter made by the Council.

You own the right to bury in the grave forever. Upon your own death, the right should be formally transferred to your beneficiaries (unless you have indicated something different to this in your Last Will and Testament). See Section 6.0 within this document.

When you buy the exclusive right of burial, this means that we cannot open the grave without your permission, and no-one can be buried in your grave without your permission.

You also own the right to erect headstones/memorials, as long as you pay the fees set out by the Council and subject to conditions set out in Section 11.0 of this document.

If the person who owns the exclusive right of burial dies, we assume they give permission that they can be buried in that grave.

Only one person will be registered as the owner of the exclusive right of burial for the grave. We do not permit joint ownership of graves.

Chief Executive, Marie Ward

Oifig Dhún Pádraig, Downpatrick Office, Downshire Civic Centre, Downshire Estate, Ardglass Road, Downpatrick BT30 6GQ
In exceptional circumstances, proprietors wishing to dispose of their exclusive right may contact the Council, through the Facilities Management Office, and offer it for purchase at the price originally paid for same. Sale to any other party other than the Council is not permitted.

The exclusive right of burial in the various graves and sections shall be granted consecutively or in such order as may from time to time be determined.

More information on buying graves and exclusive right of a burial can be seen in Section 6.0 within this document.

5.2. Buying more than one grave

The exclusive right of burial for only a single or double grave is permitted to be sold to any one person. No subdivision of any lot purchased shall take place without the written consent of the Council having been first obtained. The exclusive right of burial can only be purchased at the time of bereavement. At this point you will be permitted to purchase one plot (single plot) in which the burial will take place and one plot adjacent to this plot if available (double plot).

One person only shall be registered as the proprietor of the right of burial; joint proprietorship is prohibited.

5.3. Transfer of Burial Rights

There are 3 areas regarding transfer of burial rights and they are as follows:

5.3.1. If the present registered right of burial holder is alive and wishes to transfer the right of burial to a specific person, they will have to complete a Transfer Form signed by the current owner, the new owner and an independent witness. The form should be returned to the Facilities Management Office of the Council together with the original Exclusive Right of Burial (certificate) and relevant fee. Otherwise no right of burial will be transferred.

5.3.2. If the registered owner is deceased and has left a Will bequeathing the burial right to a specific person, a completed Transfer Form signed by the new owner (as indicated in the deceased owners Will) and an independent witness should be returned to the Facilities Management Office of the Council together with the original Exclusive Right of Burial (certificate), copy of the owners Will and relevant fee. Otherwise no right of burial will be transferred.

5.3.3. If the registered owner is deceased and has left a Will, but the Will does not state who the exclusive right of burial should be transferred to; or if the deceased registered owner has left no will (dies intestate) the exclusive right of burial can be transferred to the owners beneficiaries after the following documentation has been provided:

• A completed Transfer form signed by the new owner and an independent witness.

Chief Executive, Marie Ward

_Oifig an Iúir, Newry Office_, O’Hagan House, Monaghan Row, Newry BT35 8DJ
_Oifig Dhún Pádraig, Downpatrick Office_, Downshire Civic Centre, Downshire Estate, Ardglass Road, Downpatrick BT30 6GQ
•Original Exclusive Right of Burial (certificate)
•If there is more than one relative (next of kin) to whom burial rights could transfer to, the Council will require written consent signed by all parties stating they do not object to the transfer of the right of burial to that particular family member.

6. How to Arrange a Burial

6.1. Registering the Death

Once you have registered the death, the Registrar’s office will provide you, along with other documentation, a form known as a GRO 21. This allows a burial or a cremation to take place.

6.2. Obtaining Exclusive Right of Burial (Buying a new grave)

A person wishing to purchase the exclusive right of burial can only do so at the time of a bereavement. All Funeral Directors have the relevant form which should be completed to purchase the exclusive right of burial. This form should be completed and returned to the Facilities Management office of the Council together with the form which provides details of deceased which are required to be completed in the Council’s burial register.

Both forms should be returned to the Council with the prescribed fee.

6.2.1. Grant of Exclusive Right of Burial (Grave paper or deed)

A grant of Exclusive Right of Burial (Grave paper), signed by the Chief Executive and Council Chairperson will be sent to you when all required fees have been paid.

As the owner of the right of burial it is your responsibility to notify Council if you change your address. It is important for us to be able to contact you if there is a problem with your grave or memorial. If Council are unable to contact you, we will take the necessary actions to deal with the problem. If there is a fee due to any necessary actions taken this fee will be your responsibility.

6.2.2. Replacing Grave Papers

If you have lost your grave papers and you are the owner of the right of burial, you must complete a Duplicate Grave application form stating you have lost the grave papers. You must also provide proof of your identification, such as a passport or driving licence.

If the original grave papers are found, the duplicate grave papers are no longer valid and will be recorded on the register. We would ask for all duplicate papers to be returned to the Council.

www.newrymournedown.org
There will be a fee for replacement grave papers. These fees can be paid at our Facilities Management office.

6.3. Applying to Open a Grave for Interments

A person requiring to have an interment made in any Council Cemetery, shall sign an application which can be obtained from our Facilities Management office, giving the following particulars for registration:

- Forename and surname
- Date of death
- Sex
- Age
- Religion (including no religion)
- Occupation
- Last place of residence
- Marital status or ‘the child of’; and
- Place of death.

The information should also include the name and address of the person having the management of the interment (usually a Funeral Director). In the case of proprietary ground, the application shall give the grave number of the grave required to be opened. For new graves, Council will allocate and inform you of your grave number.

By law an application for interment shall be accompanied by a Certificate of Registry or Notice of Death (GRO21 form) which you will have received when you registered the death at the Registrar’s office, or the statutory order for burial from a Coroner.

If you do not produce at least one of these forms, Council cannot permit a burial.

On proper application for interment being made to one of our Cemetery Administrators and upon payment of the prescribed fees, Council will issue an order of burial to the Cemetery Caretaker at least 48 hours before the interment is to take place.

Funeral Directors must advise the Cemetery Administrators of the accurate size and weight of the coffin or casket before the opening of the grave.

Only persons authorised in writing by the Council shall be permitted to open or prepare any grave for an interment.

Undertakers conducting funerals must possess relevant insurances as required by the Council, such as Employer Liability and Public Liability at £5,000,000 together with vehicle insurance cover. The Council shall update its records in such respect on a regular basis and will require proof of insurance to be provided by all Undertakers. Insurance details must be confirmed on occasion of each funeral, at the time of notification and arrangements for any burial. Should details not be provided the Council will advise the relevant Undertaker that should Council have to arrange its own insurance, a surcharge will be applied, and will require any such Undertaker to address in respect of any future funerals.

Chief Executive, Marie Ward

Oifig Dhún Pádraig, Downpatrick Office, Downshire Civic Centre, Downshire Estate, Ardglass Road, Downpatrick BT30 6GQ

6.4. Notice Periods and Slot Times

If you wish to arrange a burial, Council will need 48 hours’ notice for the opening of a new grave or for any proprietary ground not yet buried in. A notice period of 24 hours is required for any second or subsequent burial.

All interments shall take place in the order in which the funerals arrive at the Cemetery, to prevent confusion.

6.5. Testing Graves for Opening

When Council receives an application to open a grave, we will check the Cemetery records to make sure the burial can take place.

If the Cemetery records indicate there may be a problem, Council will invoke the following process:

- Check all Burial Ground Regulations NI 1992 are being met
- Check ground conditions
- Check depth of remaining top cover.

If Council is certain that the burial cannot take place the Council’s decision is final. If you are unable to bury in an existing grave a new grave will be allocated.

6.6. Depth and Direction of Grave

The depth of a new grave will be 274cm (9 ft) as long as ground conditions will permit. Due to ground conditions in Council’s Lough Inch Cemetery, Ballynahinch the depth of a new grave in it will be 182.88cm (6 feet). This will also adhere to any other Council Cemeteries where there are difficult ground conditions.

By law, no coffin shall be laid in any grave nearer to the surface of the ground than 1 metre measured from the upper surface of the last interment. Each coffin shall be separated by means of a layer of earth not less that 15cm thick from any coffin previously interred.

The number of burials that can be accommodated in a grave space is dependent on a number of factors including ground conditions. Up to 3 burials may be possible in a standard grave although Council will only guarantee 1 interment in any one grave. Up to 2 burials may only be possible in a standard grave in Lough Inch Cemetery due to ground conditions.

The request for a particular orientation of your burial will be considered where possible.

6.7. Receiving the Burial Order

Once Council has received your application for a burial along with the fees you have to pay, we will make out an order for the opening of the grave.

Two copies of the burial order will be completed and will contain all the information that you provided when you registered the burial.

The first copy is sent to the Cemetery staff and the second copy is kept at our Cemetery Administrators office.

A supplementary charge for a prescribed fee will be charged where a funeral arranged to take place within Council’s fixed working hours does not arrive on time, leading to Cemetery staff having to work outside Council’s fixed working hours to complete the burial.

6.8. The Burial of Ashes and Foetus’

The burial of ashes can be arranged as per previous information provided in paragraph 6.3.

Ashes will be buried underneath the area at the head of the grave where the headstone will be erected, thus leaving the remaindered of the grave for 3 full burials (or 2 full burials if in Lough Inch).

For details on cost and fees you can contact our Facilities Management office or visit the Council website: www.newrymournedown.org/municipal-cemeteries.

Cremated remains shall not be scattered in any Cemetery.

Burial of a foetus in coffin size 10 inches (25cm) or smaller will be buried underneath the headstone, where possible, of each grave, and detailed accordingly in the burial registers. Foetus burial in a coffin size greater than 10 inches (25cm) will be buried as per paragraph 6.6.

7. Matters at the Graveside / Burial

7.1. Ministers and Clergymen of the various religious denominations shall be at liberty to officiate at the various graves of persons of their own communion, according to the forms and ceremonies of their respective Churches and Bodies.
7.2. Undertakers or such other persons must not interfere with the Cemetery staff after any coffin or cremated remains shall have been laid in the place of burial.

9. Exhumation

Save as specially provided for in these rules, no grave shall be opened, nor shall the remains of an individual be removed from a grave nor transferred from one place of burial to another, nor exhumed, except under the conditions specially provided for in law, and except with prior written consent of the Council and upon payment of the prescribed fees.

10. Maintenance of the Graves

All 5 Municipal Cemeteries across the district are lawn Cemeteries and are laid in a lawn type system which provides you with a space at the head of each grave 3ft 8 inches wide x 1 ft deep. This space may be utilized for the purpose of:

The planting of shrubs, trees or flowers on any grave located within the Municipal Cemeteries is prohibited. The placing of glass or plastic covered wreaths on graves is also prohibited. If a memorial or headstone has been erected and the grave owner has not sought permission, Council will reserve the right to remove the memorial. If an inscription is made on any memorial without Council granting permission, Council will again reserve the right to remove the memorial.

11.2. Responsibility for the Memorial Mason or Sculptor

A person erecting a monument shall remove all debris resulting from the erection and shall make good any damage done to turf, shrubbery, adjacent monuments or walks, all at their own expense and to the satisfaction of the Council. Waste bins are placed around our cemeteries, you should not use these bins for household waste or heavy waste such as soil or turf.
